Ana Walker

Ana Pecina Walker, born in Marlon, Texas, is a graduate of Baylor University where she pursued a journalism career. Following graduation, she held positions as a professional reporter, columnist and editor. For more than 2 decades, she was employed at the Longview News-Journal as City Editor, Managing Editor and Editor. She vigorously defended the causes of social, civil and human rights in the community and used the power of her pen to advance these virtues. Through her writing, Mrs. Walker has demonstrated a spirit of compassion, courage and commitment as she labored toward the goal of establishing racial harmony and equality in Longview and the surrounding area.

Reverend Homer Rockmore

Reverend Homer Rockmore, a native of Longview, graduated from Wiley College in Marshall, Texas. He answered a calling to the ministry and was ordained in 1981. He has served as the pastor of Red Oak Missionary Church since 1987. From the pulpit, he has preached tolerance and understanding among the races, never giving up on this strong message. Reverend Rockmore is recognized and respected in the community as a servant who lives his life according to the principles he professes. Because of his efforts, the Race Relations Committee is a stronger, more concerned group.

Dr. Bob Terrell

Dr. Bob Terrell, retired veterinarian, was born in Houston, Texas and is a graduate of Texas A&M. In 1954, he moved to Longview. Dr. Terrell has been an active member of the Race Relations Committee for more than a decade and also has served as Chairman of this committee. Dr. Terrell has marched in many Martin Luther King parades and in the "Unity in the Community" walks, which were initiated to promote peace, tolerance and understanding in South Longview.
